LWV Sets Water Probe

Members of the Torrance League of Women Voters will begin an evaluation of the state's system for water quality control at a series of meetings scheduled next week.

Mrs. James Craig, chairman of the study committee heading the project, said local members will be expanding on earlier studies of the state and national water resources to become better informed when called upon to make decisions concerning legislation or possible bond issues for water development and conservation.

"We will be asking our members to consider if the state's water system is the most efficient, effective, and economical system we could devise for the management of our state's waters," Mrs. Craig explained. Other questions, she said, will involve the adequacy of the state system, the standards for water quality control, and the responsibility for pollution control.

Unit meetings will be held Tuesday, Nov. 15, at 9:45 a.m. at 128 Via Los Miradores; at 7:45 p.m. at 1805 Agnes Road, Manhattan Beach; Wednesday, Nov. 16, at 9:45 a.m. at 4005 W. 232nd St.; and Thursday, Nov. 17, at 7:45 p.m. at 5620 Bartlett Drive.

Another series of meetings, to be held at the same time and location, is scheduled Dec. 6, 7, and 8.

Hostesses for the unit meetings are Mmes. J. R. Sellars, N. C. Vaughn, L. B. Farrell, and James Pierson.

A general membership meeting of the League has been scheduled Wednesday, Nov. 30, at 9:45 a.m. The session will be held at the Torrance Family YMCA, 2900 W. Sepulveda Blvd.

Topic for the discussion will be the subject of giving financial incentives to industry for pollution abatement of industrial wastes.

Mrs. Craig is being assisted by Mrs. S. B. Jackson and Mrs. W. R. Hughes. Membership information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Don Vannorsdall, membership director.
